

Laura Bidgood and Curt Lund present Boys Don't Make Passes at Girls Who Wear Glasses

Tape up your glasses and grab your pocket protectors! Embrace your inner dork with Laura Bidgood and Curt Lund in Boys Don't Make Passes at Girls Who Wear Glasses. This comedy storytelling dorkfest will tickle you with real life observations from the geek perspective and fog up your glasses with torrid tales of nerd romance. Wait, did we say torrid? We meant awkward, embarrassing and unrequited.

Boys Don't Make Passes at Girls Who Wear Glasses packed them in at the 2008 Minnesota Fringe Festival and earned "Must See" ratings from both the St. Paul Pioneer Press and City Pages.

Twin Cities GLBT magazine Lavender calls spoken word storytellers Laura Bidgood and Curt Lund a "zany pair". The duo has been writing and performing together for over four years. Together, Laura and Curt have appeared on Minnesota Public Radio, Rockstar Storytellers, the Minneapolis Geek Slam, KFAI Radio, GLBT Pride festivals in three states, and countless other benefits, cabarets and open-mic shows around the Twin Cities and other glamorous locales from Vegas to Vermillion.

TECH REQUIREMENTS: Minimal; standard lighting and audio

MARKETING: Full marketing / PR package available, including high res photos.

BOOKING: contact info@curtandlaura.com or 612 760 0446.

PRAISE FOR GLASSES

"Storytellers Laura Bidgood and Curt Lund revel in geekdom... side-splittingly hilarious... unselfconscious and so endearing" (St. Paul Pioneer Press "Must See")

"...an hour of nonstop, hilariously self-aware riffs on the tribulations of growing up nerd... The material is fantastic, the delivery polished -- it's a must-see." (City Pages)

"[A] great little spoken word gem... these two sharp performers made the 55 minutes fly by. They spend the majority of the show trying to convince you that they're both nerds. Don't let them fool you. These two are as cool as they get." (FringeFamous theatre blog)

Nominated for FringeFamous 2008 Outstanding Spoken Word show

"I adore Curt and Laura... self-effacing and totally clever" (Erica Mauter for Metroblogging)

FRINGE AUDIENCE REVIEWS

"These Fringe favorites have put together another great hour of storytelling. The material is personal without being self-indulgent and resonates with the audience without lapsing into cliché... sure to be another hit for this appealing duo."

"...kept us laughing from the beginning to the end. Great delivery of material, super stories and jokes, and a great flow that never loses the audience."

"Great writing, great timing and delivery and sweet content that speaks to those very human moments we all share."

"Nerds shall inherit the earth, and I want these two to lead us there!"